Collaborating for Success

This one day conference will help the correctional health care professional keep up to date with the latest management strategies for the incarcerated patient from community, to jail, through prison, and returning to the community. Ensuring appropriate cost effective quality care depends on clinicians basing their interventions on outcome based therapies and collaborating with other correctional and community providers in the continuum of care.

Correctional Legislative Perspectives

Representative Tony Core, (Rep.) 83rd district, member of Criminal Justice committee will share his insight and perspective concerning current criminal justice issues in the State of Ohio.

Correctional Vendor Exhibit Hall: Correctional and Pharmaceutical vendors will be exhibiting their products and services used in the correctional health care arena. These exhibits will allow the correctional clinician an opportunity to keep abreast
